

Laurentian Bank is pleased to announce that its unionized employees have accepted the Bank's offer

MONTRÉAL, March 10, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The Laurentian Bank's unionized employees voted 81% in favour of the final offer made by the Bank to the Local COPE 434 Union during their General Meeting held today in Montreal. Laurentian Bank is pleased that its unionized employees have accepted this fair offer that will allow employees to access jobs of the future, while ensuring the success of the Bank's branch network in Quebec. The agreement will now be confirmed by the Canada Industrial Relations Board. The Bank will not make further comments at this time.
